Le sieur, Dac Dragouitescu, était à partir du juin 1945 jusqu'au 2 Avril 1948, directeur général administratif aux usines Malaxa à Bucarest, je confirme que :

1) M. Nicolae Malaxa de Roumanie dans des étroites relations avec le représentant-responsable du compartiment économique de Roumanie, Jean Maurer.

À Paris en 1946 il a M. Malaxa, a attiré l'attention de Maurer qu'il ne doit pas en mettre dans leurs secrets, ni que je pourrais faire des indiscrétions. C'est Maurer lui-même qui m'a rendu compte de cela.

2) M. Malaxa et son collaborateur, Fulga Hofel, avaient comme homme d'affaires à Paris, M. Maximos, actuellement expulsé de France et de Suisse. Malgré ma position je n'ai pu participer aux entretiens.

III. Les collaborateurs de M. Malaxa, malgré les services que j'ai rendus à leur cause et à M. Malaxa, m'ont révélé aux autorités américaines de Wanne, comme étant un agent com-muniste. Je ne suis pas d'un certain Nicolaï Dimosco, qu'ils ont présenté aux services américains comme un ancien directeur aux Unions qui était entièrement loyal.

The undersigned,
Dan Dragomirescu, from June 1945 until 2 April 1948 <sup>being</sup> ~~was~~ the General Administrative director of the Malaxa Works in Bucharest. I wish to <sup>state</sup> ~~confirm~~ <sup>that:</sup>
the following:

1) Mr. Nicolae Malaxa was in close contact with the responsible representative of the Rumanian Economic section, Jean Maurer. In Paris during 1946 he (Mr. Malaxa) brought to the attention of Maurer that he could not take him in their confidence; thus I am able to make some indiscretions. It is Maurer himself who informed me of this.

2) Mr. Malaxa and his collaborator <sup>who at the present time</sup> ~~Fulga (Alfred)~~ had as their business representative in Paris, Mr. Maximos; ~~actually he~~ had been expelled from France and Switzerland. In spite of my position, I have <sup>never</sup> participated in their meetings.

3) The collaborator <sup>ORS</sup> of Mr. Malaxa, in spite of the services which I had done for them and Mr. Malaxa, had informed the American authorities in Vienna that I was a Communist agent. They used a certain Nicolae ~~Dinescu~~ <sup>VINESCU</sup> who they presented to the American Services as a former director of the ~~Malaxa Works~~ <sup>Malaxa Works</sup>, which

Dan Dragomirescu

7 July, 1949

that he should not make me (Dragomirescu) a party to their secrets, since I would be in a position to commit an indiscretion.
